The purposes of the council are:

- To encourage the study of reading problems in all educational levels.
- To stimulate and promote research in developmental, creative, corrective, and remedial reading.
- To study the various factors that influence progress in reading.
- To publish the results of pertinent and significant investigations and practices.
- To assist in the development of more adequate teacher training programs.
- To act as an intermediate clearinghouse for information relating to reading.
- To disseminate knowledge helpful in the solution of problems related to reading.
- To sponsor conferences and meetings planned to implement the purposes of the council and national association.
- To promote mutual understanding and cooperative work among educators in the elementary grades, junior high, high school, special areas, college, and leadership positions.

Are you making plans to attend the Florida Developmental Education Association Conference in Daytona Beach, FL, September 30 - October 2, 2010?

Please join us for a
Pre-Conference Session
about the Florida College Reading Council
Wednesday, September 29, 2010
5:30 p.m. - 6:15 p.m.

Membership in our organization can provide reading professionals with:

1. information about current research in the field,
2. legislative updates,
3. an opportunity to network with colleagues from around the state,
4. professional development opportunities, including a Spring Workshop that features a variety of speakers in the field, and
5. ways to assist students in applying for, and receiving, scholarships given by our organization.

Additionally, we are working on a way to provide our members access to job leads and notification of local and national conferences pertaining to the discipline.

If you have an interest in membership with our organization, please contact Len Quatrella at quatrellal@cookman.edu, Karen Nails Porter at porterker@cookman.edu or Patti Levine-Brown at plevine@fscj.edu

We look forward to seeing you in September!
